

Alternative Travel Services

Showing you the world
one vacation at a time.

You might think it's easier and less expensive to book your travels on the Internet. But you could be paying more and missing out on an amazing vacation without the guidance of someone who's been on the ground at your next destination.

I am your personal travel concierge. I want to help you match your wants and needs with a customized vacation experience—whether you're planning a quick weekend getaway or the trip of a lifetime.

I opened my own travel agency in 2015, knowing that my 15 years of experience in the travel industry would help customers and clients like you get the vacation of a lifetime.
